

Co2/Zinc Balance Pad - Large

Balance the emotions with CO2/Zinc Balance Pads.

Large CO2/Zinc Balance Pads are infused and energized with water from a plasma field that brings balance to the body, emotions and the environment. CO2/ZINC pads are generally used on the body for pain. Wear the pads as needed to reduce the pain, usually for an hour three times a day. Please do not share your pad(s). They are for your personal use only.

Directions - How to Use:

Place the pad(s) at the point of pain or discomfort. If you are using two separate pads, place one pad opposite the other pad. For an example with a kidney issue, you would place one pad on the kidney area and another pad opposite on the front of the body. DO NOT PLACE THE PADS DIRECTLY ON THE SPINE . Keep the pad to one side of the spine then move the pad to the other side of the spine.

*Your pads can be used in different ways. A single pad can be used on a single area.

Multiple pads can be placed on different areas of the body to create an interacting field between the two. You can also use pads of different strengths to increase the field interaction between the two.

Clean the plastic pouch with a damp, warm cloth only and as needed.
